

THE DIVINE DEW

By admin May 14, 2020

When you see something purer than the purest,

When you see something glowing to its best,

When you taste something sweeter than the sweetest,

Then you should know, its the Divine Dew !!

O dear, taste it sip by sip,

O dear, enjoy it drop by drop,

A day will come when you swim in the nostalgia of this dew.

Then, you should know, its the Divine Dew !!

And then comes that golden immortal moment,

The moment to witness you become purer than purest,

The moment to witness you glow to your best,

The moment to witness you become sweeter than the sweetest,

Then, you should know, its you the Divine Dew !!

So, then, who is who?

You the divine dew or the divine dew is you?

When you realise the ONENESS between the two,

Then you should know the divine dew is you.
